

Ashtyn A. Daniel

2037 S. College Street
Auburn, AL 36832
aa_daniel@charter.net
(334) 300-3358

Summary

Master's graduate from Auburn University with versatile writing skills and a passion for writing and editing who's looking to join the workforce. Meticulous editor who has experience in literary magazine and booklet publishing. Detail-oriented leader with both Graduate Teaching Assistant and Core Composition instructor of record experience.

---

Education Auburn University (August 2024-May 2026)

- Masters of Arts in English
  - Creative Writing Concentration
    - Produced a 60 page ePortfolio showcasing both nonfiction and poetry work
    - Participated in critique workshops
    - Wrote author introductions at literary events
- GPA: 4.00

Birmingham-Southern College (August 2020-May 2023)

- Religion Major
- English Writing Minor
- GPA: 3.90

Job Experience Instructor of Record (August 2025-May 2026)

- Taught approximately 60 freshmen Core Composition
  - Lesson planned activities
  - Simplified rhetorical concepts into applicable knowledge
  - Facilitated classroom demonstrations from librarians and writing center employees

Graduate Teaching Assistant (August 2024-May 2025)

- Assisted Auburn University Core Literature professors
  - Taught approximately 60 students
  - Developed classroom management skills
  - Assessed students' knowledge

Tutor at the Birmingham-Southern College Writing Center (August 2021-May 2023)

- Evaluated the written work of students
- Checked in students when they visited
- Created educational resources for students

Intern Experience Assistant Editor at Southern Humanities Review (August 2024-December 2024)

- Read fiction, nonfiction, and poetry submissions for literary magazine and evaluated which needed to be seen by editors and which did not

Hess Fellow (December 2021-September 2022)

- Interned at the General Board of Church and Society (May 2022-July 2022)

- Worked internally and externally to track social and political developments internationally and maintained a database of inclusive literature for children

Extracurricular Activities

Auburn University English Graduate Association (August 2024-May 2026)

- Creative Writing Representative (May 2025-May 2026)
  - Led writing groups and work reviews between first- and second-year Creative Writing students
- Co-Chair (September 2025-May 2026)
  - Managed and updated the EGA calendar of events
  - Co-created meeting agendas
  - Co-led meetings
  - Helped organize and facilitate fundraising events
  - Co-arranged EGA training for new officers

Certifications

Technical and Professional Communication (May 2026)

- Classes
  - “Technical and Professional Editing,” “Technical and Professional Communication Issues and Approaches,” “Document Design,” and “Studies in Technical and Professional Communication”
- Skills
  - Proficiency in the Microsoft Office Suite
  - Proficiency with Adobe Products (Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, and Illustrator)
  - Proficiency in editing and proofreading
    - Line editing, copyediting, design and layout editing, and content editing)
  - Experience with publication creation
    - Mission statements, style guides, and calls for papers

Awards/Honors

Recipient of the Dr. Ward Allen Annual Graduate Award (May 2025)

- This award is granted to a student pursuing an advanced degree in the Auburn University English department who is studying poetry, prosody, or poetics

Summa Cum Laude Graduate (May 2023)

- Those with a grade point average of 3.900 are graduated summa cum laude

Publications

The Western Border Literary Magazine (April 2023)

- “Lorenzo’s Farm”